Course Expectations and Rules Specific to Course
Include course-specific attendance policy and other course rules here.

Continuity of Instruction Policy
Describe how you will contact students in the event an instructional continuity day is called by the University (i.e., Canvas or email to students).

Artificial Intelligence
Describe whether AI is allowed for use in your course.   (See CTT website for example course policies Teaching and Generative Artificial Intelligence | Center for Transformative Teaching | Nebraska).

Course Grading Policy
A list of papers, exams, and other assessments that will contribute to the students' grades, along with the exact or approximate value of those assessments, either in points or percent of total grade. Repeated small assessments, such as homework or quizzes, can be considered as one item in the list of assessments. Include grading scale that will be used to assign final grade.

Dual-level courses [i.e., 400/800] are expected to have differentiated content, learning goals, and assessment measures that are distinct for the graduate level, including a grading rubric (if applicable), the value distribution (as points or percentages) and any other performance measure specific to the graduate-level work.

[OPTIONAL] Course Schedule:
Include all topics, assessments, projected due dates, and date/time of final exam.
Space provided for instructor to add additional information if needed. Otherwise, leave blank.
